Work with Alison one-on-one

MINI INTENSIVE

Just for 2020, we've decided to try something new. Alison loves shooting on location with students, and doing critiques afterward. Her workshops are built around these two things, but most of her workshops have been cancelled for the 2020 season.

For your Mini Intensive, you'll meet at a location on Martha's Vineyard, and shoot for an hour together (socially distanced, mask please). Then she'll do an hour online with you, via zoom, critiquing your images. She'll want to see what you shot during your time together. Time allowing, you can show other images and ask questions.

This is Alison's way of creating the workshop experience on a smaller scale, for these times. It's a great opportunity to work with Alison one-on-one, and see first-hand how much you can learn from her.
